The Targus® 15–16" Octave III Backpack is a functional and lightweight pack with easy access pockets to stylishly carry the day's essentials. It will protect your tech in its dedicated padded laptop pocket, while organizing your gear in its built-in workstation. Two front pockets make it easy to stash your on-the-go items like your phone, wallet, or charger, and you can keep your water or drinks handy in its two side water bottle pockets.

Designed with padded shoulder straps and mesh back, this backpack is comfortable to carry. Its convenient cable pass-thru allows you to connect your favorite headphones or power pack (not included) to your phone or other smart device while you're on the move. Spacious, yet lightweight, comfortable, and functional, the Octave III hits all the right notes to easily transport your laptop and necessities.
