

MATRIX
POWERWATCH™
Powered by You

The world's first smartwatch
powered by your body heat

Built for the adventurous.

The MATRIX PowerWatch was designed and built for the adventurous. Its aircraft-grade aluminum body keeps it light, while its purposeful bulk maintains its rugged look and feel.

The MATRIX PowerWatch uses groundbreaking thermoelectric technology to run exclusively on heat generated from your body, thus eliminating the need for cables and external power sources. It is water-resistant up to 200 meters.
