

User Manual

This FRESH METAL SMART BOWL measures and calculates the accuracy of the amount of food that your pets are consuming. Simply download the PETKIT App and start to get your daily feeding suggestions.

304 Stainless Steel

1 Installation

Before the device is turned on, please take out the metal bowl first and open the battery box as shown. Put a pair of AAA battery inside then close the battery cover.

3 Unit Conversion

Press the button steadily for 3 seconds to convert the unit in order (g/ounce/lb/ml).

2 One Press to Start

Press the button on the side of the device to start or launch (the number will be automatically calibrated to 0). The device will shut down itself if the number continues to remain the same over 5 minutes.

4 App Download

Please scan the QR code to download "PETKIT" App for IOS and Android devices, and start creating your pet's profile to experience.

General Information

1. Please make sure the metal bowl is inside the device then press the button to start and pour your choice of pet food inside. If pour the food firstly, the number on the screen will be at 0 and you can use this method to calibrate the number.
2. By default your pet's food is calculated in Grams, to change the weight of food calculation simply hold down the same button for 3 seconds.
3. Please dry the plastic body of the device at once if the water overflows to its bottom when pour the water into the metal bowl.
4. If the battery signal  is flashing on the LCD screen of the device, that indicates the batteries are running out of electricity and need to be replaced.
5. If the LCD screen shows EEEE, that means it's out of weighing boundary. If it shows ----, that means the calculation in weight is below 0 and the bowl isn't properly aligned with the surface. Please make sure the bowl is on a balanced surface and re-press to remove the error. The max weighing of this device is 2kg
6. The sensors are installed inside the plastic body and beneath the metal bowl, so please take and place down the bowl gently.
7. If any children use this device, please make sure they use it properly and avoid any damage such as falling down to the ground.
8. Do not place this device in a refrigerator or a heating environment. It is recommended to use this device in a temperature settings between 0 and 50 Degree Celcius.
9. Alkaline batteries are recommended for optimal use however, this device accepts any and all AAA batteries. It's recommended not to mix battery brands or use older batteries with newer batteries.

Frequently Asked Questions

- Q Is the device water resistant? Can it be washed?
- A Yes, but the whole device is prohibited to wash under the water directly. Only the metal bowl can be took out and washed by water or dishwasher and dry with cloth before put back.
- Q Can the product be connected to the blue tooth of a cellphone?
- A No, but our PETKIT App can supply you with healthy feeding suggestions.
- Q How long to the batteries function?
- A A: With normal daily use the batteries should generally last for at least a 1 year period.

PETKIT App

PETKIT Website