

Cuisinart ® 6-Piece Nonstick Bakeware Set

The bakeware collection from Cuisinart delivers the same quality construction and performance you expect from their cookware, with the convenience of a premium professional nonstick finish that pops baked goods right out of this 12-cup muffin pan. The full line is constructed of heavy-gauge steel to provide even heat distribution and consistent baking results. Silicone side grips are contoured for standard oven mitts.

Cuisinart Easy Grip Bakeware is an investment that will prove its worth every time you use it. Exclusively designed aluminum encapsulated base provides superior heat conductivity and even heat distribution to meet the demands of gourmet chefs everywhere. When properly cared for, your Cuisinart Easy grip Bakeware will give countless years of service and pleasure.
