DAIJA™

ARCADE STICK

Developed in collaboration with pro player Marie-Laure 'Kayane' Norindr, NACON's DAIJA Arcade Stick ensures a whole new level of performance and optimized comfort with all fighting games.

A key figure of the eSport scene, Kayane started playing fighting games at the age of 9 and managed to quickly establish herself, playing Street Fighter, Dead or Alive and Soulcalibur. At the age of 20, she became the Guinness World Records record holder of the most podium placements (top 3) in fighting game competitions for a female.

Having established herself as a TV journalist and influencer, Kayane is now making her comeback to competitive gaming with Soulcalibur VI, a game she has become a major endorser of across Europe.
