Emerge Lifetime Warranty Statement

Exceptions to Warranty

Notwithstanding any other provision contained herein, this limited warranty does not cover any damage to a product that results from improper installation, accident, abuse, misuse, natural disaster, insufficient or excessive electrical supply, abnormal mechanical or environmental conditions, or any unauthorized disassembly, repair, or modification. This limited warranty also does not apply to any product on which the original identification information has been altered, obliterated or removed, has not been handled or packaged correctly, has been sold as second-hand or has been resold contrary to the US export regulations.

This limited warranty covers only repair, replacement, refund or credit for materially defective products that are manufactured by Emerge, as provided above. Emerge is not liable for, and does not cover under warranty, any loss of data or any costs associated with determining the source of system problems or removing, servicing or installing Emerge products. This warranty excludes third party software, connected equipment or stored data. In the event of a claim, Emerge's sole obligation shall be replacement of the hardware; under no circumstances will Emerge be liable in any way for damages, including any lost profits, lost savings or other incidental or consequential damages arising out of the use of, or inability to use, such product.

Duration of Warranty

The duration of the warranty is indicated on the product packaging. The Lifetime Warranty lasts during the serviceable life of the product, which is the period during which all product components are available.

Some states do not allow limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts or the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so these limitations may not apply to you. This warranty gives you specific legal rights that may vary from state to state.
