

PLAY[®]

FOR KIDS

www.Voice.Gift

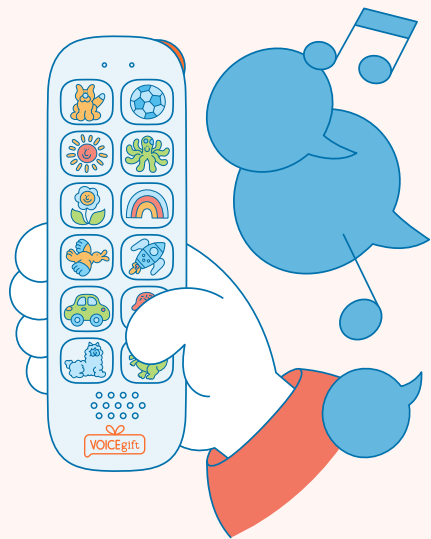

Kids love to hear a story read by you, friends and family. With VoiceGift PLAY, you can read them their favorite book and share the laughter, giggles and joy, even when you're not there. You and other loved ones can read and record up to twelve different books. Press one of the buttons to record the book and then affix the associated sticker onto the book's cover. Every time they want to hear you read them that story, they'll know to press that button and... magic! It will be just like you're snuggled up to them.

INCLUDES:

- Lithium-ion rechargeable battery
- Matching sticker set for book

1 Record It

Make sure your PLAY device is fully charged. Slide the selector switch into REC position and select a button to associate with your recording. Press the button and begin recording the story at the beep. The LED light will illuminate while you're recording. Feel free to ad lib. Describe what you're seeing on the page. You might even say "Now turn the page" at the end of each page. Press the button a second time when you're finished reading the whole story. Repeat for additional books using a different button.

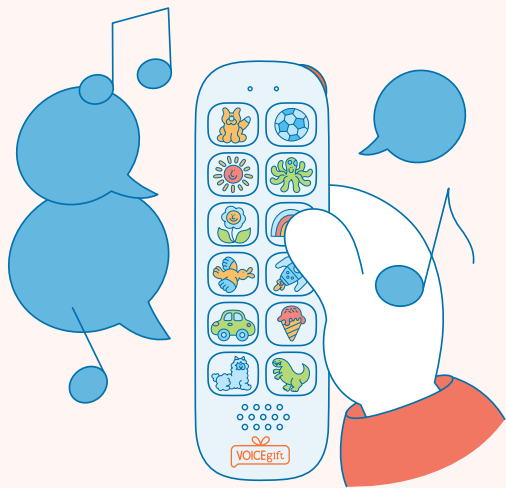

2 Program It

(Optional)

In addition to using the USB cable to charge your PLAY, you can also use it to back up your files. You can even transfer .mp3 files from your computer on to your PLAY... Just rename the files with the number (1-12) that you want to use to trigger playback. Once you are finished recording all your audio on to one PLAY device, you can back them up on your computer and copy them to other PLAY devices for all the kids in your life!

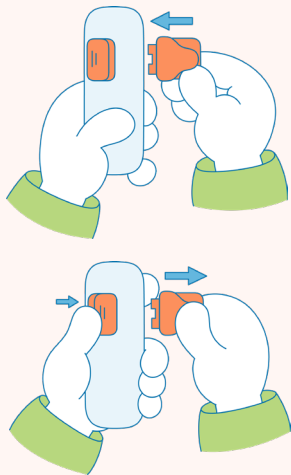

3 Play!

To play your audio files, slide the selector switch into the PLAY position. Press on the button you wish to play. Your audio will start to play. Press the button again and your audio will pause. When you press it again, it will play where it left off. Press another button at any time to play a different audio file.

Clip It, Turn It Up.

PLAY for Kids was created to make any children's book into an audio book featuring the voices of your kid's favorite storytellers. It can be placed on a bookshelf ready to come to life when the next book is grabbed, or you can insert the provided clip into the side of the device to attach it to the back cover of any hardcover book. To remove the clip, press the orange Release button. Use the headphones jack when in a quiet place or on planes, trains or automobiles!
